Dear Mr. Wenke:

I am writing this letter as a follow up to our conversation yesterday. As I explained yesterday, Mr. Jackson's complaint erroneously names HMS HOST USA, INC, as defendant. I have confirmed with my client that Mr. Jackson was actually employed by HOST INTERNATIONAL, INC., a corporation that is incorporated in the State of Delaware and whose principal place of business is located in the State of Maryland.

Instead of filing an amended complaint, I asked if you were amenable to dismissing your complaint in the District Court of El Paso County and refiling the complaint in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas based on diversity jurisdiction. If you are not inclined to refiling your complaint and to avoid filing unnecessary motions with the court, we are willing to forgo our right to removal and litigate this action in state court, if Mr. Jackson agrees to stipulate that he seeks less than $75,000 in damages. Please contact me tomorrow by close of business if you are willing to agree to such a stipulation. If we do not hear from you we will assume that you agree that the amount in controversy in this case exceeds $75,000. I look forward to your prompt reply.

Sincerely,

Serafina Raskin
